The Googasian Firm, P.C. passionately pursues cases for people harmed by misconduct. In a practice that is statewide as well as national in scope, the firm represents individuals and families whose lives have been altered due to accidents and malpractice as well as thousands of people in consumer class actions.

For a seventh consecutive year, all of the firm's partners—George Googasian, Tom Howlett, Craig Weber and Dean Googasian—are recognized on the Super Lawyers list. Howlett also serves as president of the Oakland County Bar Association, continuing our firm's tradition of service to the profession and the community.

The Googasian Firm typically represents clients on a contingent-fee basis, in which the firm's fees turn on a favorable outcome. Most of the firm's cases come on referral from other lawyers in Michigan and beyond who entrust their clients to the firm due to a proven record of professionalism and success. Technology and creativity allow The Googasian Firm to litigate complex cases efficiently and effectively. Leaders in the courtroom and the bar, attorneys at The Googasian Firm pursue serious and tragic cases in a manner that reflects favorably on both its clients and the profession as a whole.
